

Appendix

Uhh

A graph \mathcal{G} is a set containing two sets. The first set is of a finite number of abstract objects, which we call nodes. The second set is a set of binary relationships on these objects, which we call edges.